Do you need to maintain your Electrical Competence?

Are you a:
- Distribution/Transmission/Line Mechanic
- Cable Jointer
- Substation maintainer

Yes → CANNOT ATTEND
Or maintain with Site Safe Registered Electrical Workers

No → Are you a registered:
- Electrician
- Electrical Engineer
- Electrical Installer
- Electrical Service Technician
- Associated Tradesperson - Plumbers and gasfitters
- Associated Tradesperson - Licensed building practitioners
- Electrical Appliance Serviceperson
- Electrical Inspector (Can only be assessed by an Electrical Inspector)
- * Limited Certificate Holder
  (Applies to Overseas Applicants obtaining their Limited Certificate) - see Note
- * Trainee Limited Certificate Holder Apprentice - see Note

*Note - For these classifications only, Site Safe recommends completing this course within the three months leading up to you attaining your registration. This is to ensure your competency course is current when the trainee seeks registration.

If you hold any of the following endorsements you can still attend the course:
- Supervision
- Mains Parallel Generation Systems
- Medical Cardiac Protected Areas
- Hazardous Areas
- Mining Operations.

Yes → CAN ATTEND
Site Safe Registered Electrical Workers course.

No → Do you need to renew your Site Safety Card?

No → Learner directed to other appropriate action.

Yes
- Foundation Passport course
- Passport Plus/Flexi course
- 1-day/2-day course.

Pre course mandatory activities for trainees

- Read the Site Safe Training Webpage and ensure that you are booking the right course
- Review and bring along a copy of AS/NZS 3000:2018 Section 8
- If you hold an endorsement your trainer will provide the relevant Companion Guide and assessment on the day of the course.
- Bring your own test equipment:
  - Multi-meter
  - Insulation Resistance Tester
  - RCD Tester.

SITESAFE
Te Kaitiaki o Haumaru

Correct as at 1 NOV 2026